Some jobs advertised in C.E. Weekly are for upcoming or anticipated openings, or may be filled before you respond to the advertiser. Please notify us if you find a firm advertising upcoming positions as "Immediate." For subscriber online access, please contact our office for a UserID and Password.

Contract Employment Weekly (ISSN 1063-9268) ©Copyright 2012 C.E. Publications, Inc. Published and airmailed every Wednesday. Most job openings are for short or long term contract (temporary) assignments. There should never be a fee to apply for or accept any of the jobs published in C.E. Weekly. Direct (captive) positions advertised must meet the following criteria: (1) be for a position with the advertiser's client (unless it is for recruiting related staff); and (2) must be identified as "direct." If you wish to apply for any position advertised, send a copy of your current resume to the advertising firm, not to Contract Employment Weekly or C.E. Publications. *C.E. ONLINE PROFILE

Every day, recruiters do hundreds of searches of our resume database. Each time that happens, a recruiter usually locates many resumes that match their keyword search. Often subscribers, whose resumes they retrieve, have certain requirements that do not generally appear on their resumes. For example: Are you currently available, or are you working now and won't be available for a couple of months? ... What is the minimum rate you will accept? ... Where would you prefer to work? ... Will you consider direct positions, or only contract? ... How do you prefer to work, W2 or 1099? ...etc. Your personal profile allows you to make that information available to recruiters. It is critical that you keep your profile very current! ... especially the status of your availability. This service will only be as effective as the effort you devote to it. As long as the majority of our subscribers maintain their Online Profile, and keep the information current, this should be a very beneficial service to both our subscribers and our advertisers.

All print subscriptions also include online access for full duration at CJHunter.com
